Residential on 0.23 Acres

Port Malabar Unit 23, Palm Bay, FL

Spacious SE Palm Bay home looking for a new owner with a bit of vision! Previously used as a rental, this property could use some cosmetic updates. The interior has been freshly painted, a new HVAC was installed in 2022, and the exterior was professionally painted the same year. A new aerator and pump updated 2024. While the flooring needs replacement, the price reflects this, allowing the new owner to choose the style that suits them best. It's not brand new, but you won't find this square footage at this price in a new build—size matters especially if you have a growing family! Easy to show and ready to go. Call today!

Built in 2005
